

Wilderness House Literary Review 11/4

The Bards collection

The Bagel Bards, a group of poets and writers who meet every Saturday at the Au Bon Pain in Davis Sq. Somerville Massachusetts, have been an integral part of Wilderness House Literary Review from the start. Our editor, Steve Glines, has taken lots and lots of photographs of these artists over the years. His recent discovery of photoshop apps has given a new meaning to portraiture. Here is a small sample of the poets that come to "the bards."
