

Wilderness House Literary Review 12/1

Joshua Lindenbaum
Choices TM

There are several Pieces
but no metal thimble or Hershey-Kiss shaped piece of plastic.
There is only one Player,
and the board has more curves than the word "curves" (sorry Nicki Minaj).

It's a game everyone plays,
and no one is better at it than addicts;
remember the first rule: everyone plays.

Meet the pieces: Ego, Instinct, Perception, DNA, Chemistry, and Memory.
Multiple pieces may be used at once.
You have a limited amount of moves; the amount is unknown.
For example, one move is the I'll do it tomorrow or I'll start tomorrow, both classics. But don't forget Just_ one_ more....

Choices is free of charge
and recommended for ages 3-122.
No purchase necessary;
it's included.
