

Wilderness House Literary Review 12/2

Natasha Cassitto Minott
Trapped Angel

Did you ever just feel so alone?
No one to talk to
and your parents aren't home.
They left you -- always neglect you
You're thinking nobody loves you
and got your life so stressful.

Did you ever get so betrayed?
No real friends that you can turn to.
Friends always turn around and try to hurt you.
That's why you have trust issues.
They only come around just to desert you.

Did you ever just have no self control?
Thinking got the best of you.
Make your heart turn so cold,
you can't trust no one
Not a single soul.

Did you ever just want to give up?
Decided that enough was enough.
Got so tired of acting so tough.
Acting like you're good, but your life is getting rough.

Did you ever just wanna die?
Thinking of that thought, it makes you wanna cry.
Trynna figure out all the possible reasons why.
Why you trapped in this life that only sucks you dry?
