

Moriah Hampton

In Flux

MORIAH HAMPTON received her PhD in Modernist Literature from SUNY-Buffalo. Her fiction, poetry, and photography have appeared in Hamilton Stone Review, Entropy, Rune Literary Collection, The Sonder Review, and elsewhere. She currently teaches in the Writing and Critical Inquiry Program at SUNY-Albany.

Wilderness House Literary Review 16/3

ARTIST STATEMENT: I like to stay receptive to the possibilities inherent in photographing each scene. I happened upon the idea of photographing food coloring in a pan of water after noticing how well a certain brand sank to the bottom and slowly dispersed. Initially, I planned to photograph something quite different. Whether taking pictures, writing a story or poem, I strive after a pre-conceived idea only until a more interesting option reveals itself.

